Section 2

By the powers vested in me by the Constitution of the United Kingdom of Solmeria, I, King Nolan, Monarch of the United Kingdom of Solmeria (hereinafter "King Nolan"), do ordain this Decree. If any part of this Decree is found to be unenforceable, all parts not found unenforceable shall remain in effect.

Article 2

Section 1

Under the authority of the Second Article of Amendment, twenty-five (25) seats are hereby established in the House of Assembly.

Section 2

Elections for the seats established under Section 1 shall be held once each year from the twenty-second (22nd) day of July through the twenty-ninth (29th) day of July.

Each annual election shall constitute a new House of Assembly. The House elected in the first annual election shall be known as the First House. Each subsequent annual election shall constitute the next numbered House.

Section 3

All votes cast during the election period shall be counted no later than the fifteenth (15th) day of August.

Section 4

After counting the votes, the twenty-five (25) candidates with the highest number of votes, or the number of candidates equal to the number of seats established by law, shall be declared elected to the House of Assembly.

Section 5

The results of the election, including the names of the candidates elected to the House of Assembly, shall be released to the public after the vote count is complete.

Section 6

The newly elected House of Assembly shall begin its new session on the first Monday of October following the election.

The House elected in the July election shall begin its session on the first Monday of October of the same year.

Section 7

A Writ of Election may be issued by the Monarch when necessary to conduct an election for the House of Assembly.

A Writ of Election may be issued:

1. To fill any seat in the House of Assembly that is vacant or does not have a sitting member;
2. To call an election when required by law or when a change in the number of seats in the House of Assembly requires an election to be held; or
3. For any other election of the House of Assembly authorized by the Constitution or by law.

The Writ of Election shall establish the applicable election period, the seats to be contested, and any other procedures necessary for the conduct of the election.

If there are not enough eligible candidates to fill all seats being contested in an election, only the candidates elected under the applicable Writ of Election shall be seated, and any remaining seats shall remain vacant until filled in accordance with the Constitution, this Royal Decree, or a subsequent Writ of Election.
